Quotes attributable to Deputy Premier John Barilaro:

“Off the back of devastating drought, bushfires and floods, there has never been a more crucial time to support regional NSW with funding for transport, education, health and tourism. This budget has a strong focus on job creating infrastructure projects to ensure local economies remain strong and regional NSW continues to be a fantastic place to live and work. The NSW Government is once again delivering for our regions.”

Quotes attributable to Minister for Western NSW Adam Marshall:

“It is essential our communities in the far west have access to the same services as others in the State, whether that’s roads, water security or housing. This Budget continues the NSW Government’s commitment to making that happen.”

Quotes attributable to Member for Dubbo Dugald Saunders:

“This is a Budget that truly delivers for the people of the Dubbo electorate. “Never before have we seen such continued investment in the bush and our communities will benefit from crucial funding in health, education and transport services that help us deliver a safer, stronger regional NSW.”

Quotes attributable to Member for Bathurst Paul Toole:

“This Budget shows how serious we are about transforming the Great Western Highway with $2 billion over the next four years to deliver safer, more reliable journeys through the Blue Mountains and stronger connections to the Central West.”

Quotes attributable to Member for Cootamundra Steph Cooke

“The 2021-22 NSW Budget sees continued delivery in the regions thanks to the NSW Nationals in Government. This includes crucial investment to improve our road and rail networks, to support jobs growth and economic stimulus, and to strengthen our health and education infrastructure. This year’s Budget is about ensuring regional communities are given every opportunity possible to thrive.”
